Red Cross to Distribute Relief Supplies

Bennett Asks House To Approve Scheme For Fall and Winter

Premier, Moving Resolution Before Offering Bill, Proposes Parliament Give Government Power to Spend Such Sums for Relief as It May Judge Are Necessary; Tells of Crop Failure on Prairies

Ottawa, July 29.—The Red Cross Society has been asked to take charge of distribution of food and clothing, primarily to women and children, under the Dominion Government unemployment relief programme. This was announced in the Commons this afternoon by Premier Bennett. The Prime Minister said the provinces had nearly all furnished the government with programmes for relief which, in some cases, contemplated meeting winter conditions.

MOVING RESOLUTION
Premier Bennett this afternoon moved adoption of the resolution to offer to the Governor-in-Council power to make grants during the present fiscal year for unemployment and arm relief. The measure which would be introduced following passing of the resolution, the Prime Minister said, would also give the Governor-in-Council power to deal with the maintenance of peace, order and good government in all parts of Canada.

The powers were asked to deal with in an abnormal situation. The money would be paid out of the consolidated fund.

LARGE SUMS NEEDED
"The adoption of this resolution," Premier Bennett proceeded, "is for the introduction of a bill for the purpose of vesting in the Governor-in-Council during the recess of Parliament until the end of the fiscal year, full power to redress so far as it is possible the conditions of unemployment and distress now prevalent in certain sections of the Dominion. Comprehensive measures of relief cannot be introduced until the recess of Parliament is closed." (Concluded on Page 2)

North Haven, Me., July 29.—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh landed on the water near the island of Vinal Haven late today after a flight from North Beach, N.Y.

New Haven, Maine, July 29.—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh in their monoplane passed over the home here of Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow at 3:15 p.m. after a flight from North Beach, N.Y.

After spending the night at the Morrow estate, the Lindberghs are expected to hop off sometime tomorrow for Ottawa, on the first leg of their aerial vacation trip to Tokyo.

The plane was poised at the edge of the ramp while the delicate adjustments to the elaborate radio apparatus were completed.

The colonel explained the difficulties they had with the radio apparatus during their trip to Washington was due more to unfamiliarity with its intricacies than to any mechanical defects.

STEPS TO PREVENT FALL IN WHEAT PRICES SUGGESTED

Ottawa, July 29.—In view of the evidence given before the committee, it is recommended the government take whatever steps it may deem necessary to prevent a drastic decline in the price paid to producers of wheat, especially during the fall months when the bulk of the crop is being marketed. This is one of the chief recommendations of the Commons committee on agriculture which today drafted its report recording its investigation into the methods of handling and marketing agricultural products.

EXPORT TRADE
The committee's report endorses the principle of grading with respect to grain, poultry and hogs. With respect to livestock, it says: "The committee is of the opinion that an export trade of increasing volume and value in best cattle is open to this country dependent on the following conditions:

(a) Careful breeding, feeding, selection and conditioning of Canadian cattle.

(b) Adequate shipping space.

(c) Reasonable transportation rates, both rail and ocean.

(d) A continuation, and sufficient volume of available shipments the year round, irrespective of the fluctuation in the market prices."

POOLEY AIDS VANCOUVER IN WALKATHON WAR

Attorney-General Approves Prosecution Under Lord's Day Act

Vancouver Plans Daily Barrage of Court Prosecutions of Walkathons

Permission to prosecute organizers of walkathons in Vancouver under the Lord's Day Act, was given Chief Constable W. J. Bingham of Vancouver this morning by Attorney-General R. H. Pooley. The fiat was granted less than one minute after Mr. Pooley received the formal application.

The Victoria City Council yesterday evening decided, taking any action to halt the local walkathon being conducted at the Canada Hall. City Solicitor Pringle advised that interference would be "very unwise."

The Police Commission had urged the council to stop walkathons operating and to take steps to prevent organization of such contests.

The walkathon which had been in progress at the Playhouse terminated yesterday evening and prizes were given the winners.

Vancouver, July 29.—Application by Chief Constable W. J. Bingham for a fiat from the Attorney-General's Department, authorizing prosecution of walkathons under the Lord's Day Act is the latest move in the city's battle to close the Auditorium walkathon.

The second summons against the walkathon promoters for contravention of city by-law 2163, which ordered them to close by July 24, was issued yesterday afternoon by Earl E. Robinson, police court clerk, at the request of the city.

Four Victorians Hurt Near Cumberland When Car Leaves Highway

Cumberland, July 29.—Four people were hurt yesterday afternoon when Mrs. R. W. Robins of Victoria lost control of her car on the road between Union Bay and Boynton, when driving to Qualicum. The car crashed into a stump at the roadside and was severely damaged.

In the front seat with Mrs. Robins were Mrs. H. D. Watson of Victoria and the rear seat was H. D. Watson, Jack Watson, fifteen, and two small girls, Rosemary Robins and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

Mrs. Robins suffered concussion, severe head and chest bruises and a fractured right wrist. Mrs. Watson had scalp wounds and severe bruises on the side of her head and face. Dick Watson had severe injuries to his nose and mouth. All three in the front seat were thrown with great force against the windshield.

H. D. Watson received a scalp wound and the little girl escaped with a severe shaking.

Two doctors and an ambulance from Cumberland rendered assistance and the injured were removed to the Cumberland General Hospital.

CITY FINANCES IN GOOD SHAPE

Tax Collections Higher in Proportion to Last Year; Trade Licenses Up

Expenditures Carefully Watched in First Six Months; City Has More Dogs

Collection of current Victoria taxes for the first six months of this year amounts to 27.14 per cent. of the total levy and is more than one per cent. better than at June 30 last year. The figures reveal one interesting fact, however, that the collection of trade licenses, despite so-called depression, have increased, the actual figures being: 1931, $56,382; 1930, $55,119. Although the advance is small, it is regarded as significant.

The heavy June rains are reflected in water collections, which are slightly below last year, since lawn watering during that period was not as extensive. More dogs are licensed this year, with collections up more than $100.

Saturday Set As Prorogation Goal At Ottawa

Commons Members Hope to Clear Up Session's Business and Go Home Then

Ottawa, July 29.—According to present plans, the Commons will sit next Saturday, with prorogation probably Saturday evening. It is understood an agreement has been reached to complete the work of the session at the end of the week.

The Beauharnois debate is scheduled to be started to-morrow. Hon. W. A. Gordon, Minister of Immigration, who acted as chairman of the committee which investigated the affairs of Beauharnois, will move the House concur in the report.

The minister gave notice of his motion, which he tabled the report yesterday evening, expressing the hope that in the meantime the members would acquaint themselves with the contents thereof.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP
Pupils ownership of the Beauharnois project was in the center of the committee members when they made their main recommendation, said Mr. Mackenzie, and his view was concurred in by Robert Cardner, U.P.A. Acadia. Because of parliamentary rules this could not be recommended specifically because a committee cannot suggest the spending of public money.

CONFERENCE HELD
Premier Bennett and Hon. Honore Mercier, Minister of Lands and Forests of Quebec, conferred yesterday on the question of possible Dominion legislative action to purchase the development of the Beauharnois project. Action to develop the power enterprise "in a manner calculated best to serve the Canadian people without prejudicing the rights of Quebec" it is understood, is under consideration of the government.

Carrying with him a copy of the report of the special committee of the Commons on the Beauharnois enterprise, Mr. Mercier left for Quebec yesterday evening to report to Premier Taschereau.

Des Moines, Iowa, July 29.—Aerial warfare, with planes spreading poison mash over fields threatened by an army of grasshoppers in prospect for western Iowa farmers to-day.

State officials will furnish poison bran to be spread on waste lands and highways, and the poison will be sold at wholesale prices to farmers in the infected areas.

RELIEF FUND PASSES $50,000; Mayor's Appeal To Citizens

With the Victoria Citizens' Unemployed Fund well past the $50,000 mark and plans laid for the commencement of an intensive campaign to raise the total to $250,000, Mayor Anson issued the following statement this morning:

"At my instance, when I realized the distress which was imminent owing to lack of employment for married men, residents of this city, a few business men met in the City Hall and organized a committee for the purpose of establishing a relief fund, to provide clothing and other requirements in cases of necessity which are likely to arise during the coming winter."

"While it is true that the federal and provincial governments, with the municipality, are arranging some measures of relief, it would appear at the moment that such relief will not be sufficient in all cases."

The committee mentioned above has, from a very limited number of our citizens, already procured subscriptions amounting to $52,598.98.

1,000 MEN FIGHT FIRE IN IDAHO

Spokane, Wash., July 29.—A scorching smoke screen, which threatened Idaho and Montana skies to-day as the 30,000-acre Deer Creek fire and several smaller blazes swept along steadily.

A thousand men wielded shovels and axes in challenge to the Deer Creek fire, largest in the northwest. A favorable wind was aiding them, but they were retreating because the mountainous country made trenching almost impossible.

Two fighters suffered injuries yesterday when a falling tree struck them. A force of 550 men on the north-eastern front fell back as the blazes crossed Hell Roaring and Speed Creeks and approached within a few miles of the Canadian border west of the Yack River in Montana.

REDUCTION PLAN FOR COUNCIL SIZE NOT SUPPORTED

Since it would be necessary to change the statutes governing the size of Victoria's City Council, no referendum to reduce the council to five would be submitted to the ratepayers this year, the Victoria Ratepayers' Association will be informed by the council following consideration of a request to this effect before the council yesterday afternoon.

The ratepayers' association maintained that the recent "by-law" vote was a mandate to the council to embark on a programme of stringent economy and they suggested this be started by cutting the council to five instead of ten members.

The city solicitor advised the board of the necessary legislative changes before such an alteration could be made, and it was decided to advise the association of this opinion.

HIGHLIGHTS OF REPORT ON BEAUHARNOIS

Ottawa, July 29.—Highlights of the Beauharnois committee's report, which will be debated to-morrow in the Commons are:

That the Parliament of Canada should take such action as may be within its power, and without prejudicing the rights of the Province of Quebec, to procure the development of this project in such a manner as will best serve the people of Canada.

That should the rights of the Dominion and the Province of Quebec come in conflict, every effort be put forth to arrive at a satisfactory agreement, so that the project may not be imperilled by delay.

That definite action be taken to preserve the rights of navigation and of complete jurisdiction of Parliament in respect thereto.

That the work of Beauharnois is proceeding on plans which have been approved by the Governor-in-Council.

The Soulanges section "presents an opportunity for hydro-electric development almost, if not quite, unique on the face of the globe," the report says.

That no evidence was adduced that $120,000 in bonds given to John Aird Jr. of Toronto went to any political party.

The report criticizes the conduct of Senator Donat Raymond for not disclosing his receipt of $200,000 of campaign funds for the Liberal Party from R. O. Sweeney.

Mr. Henry as general manager of the Beauharnois project and H. B. Griffith as secretary-treasurer and director on the Beauharnois Light, Heat and Power Company are involved, the committee considers, in the "misuse" of company funds for campaign purposes.

The report was unanimous.

The committee comprised nine members, three Liberals and one United Farmer of Alberta. Twenty-five public hearings were held and thirty-five witnesses gave evidence.

An amount in the neighborhood of $30,000 was paid by Mr. Sweeney to the Conservative Party in Quebec, the report shows.

Contributions were also made, according to the testimony of Mr. Sweeney and Mr. Griffith, to Gen. McLaughlin, understood to be collecting for the Conservative campaign fund in Montreal, of $10,000.

BIG GAS PLANT TO BE ERECTED IN VANCOUVER

Canadian Press

Vancouver, July 29.—A new gas plant, with a capacity of 3,000,000 cubic feet a day, will be erected by the B.C. Electric Railway Company on the old Royal City Mills property immediately south of the company's big new gas holder. In announcing an immediate start on construction, the company gives the cost of the new plant as $850,000. The contract calls for completion by November 1, 1932, and the plant is expected to help to meet the winter load in 1932-33.

Continued increase in consumption of gas in Vancouver caused the company to begin this new unit, which will be part of a plant which will eventually produce 25,000,000 cubic feet a day, states W. G. Murrin, president.

TO SERVE NORTH VANCOUVER
In addition to normal increase in consumption, the company estimates new industrial installations will demand another 8,000,000 cubic feet a year and North Vancouver will call for 6,000,000 feet when mains are laid across the Second Narrows.

It is estimated the new plant will use 30,000 tons of British Columbia coal a year. It will consist of thirty vertical ovens, which will be charged every fifteen hours. The plant will consume 180 tons of coal a day when fully charged. Metallurgical coke will be a new by-product of the plant. It will be the only plant of its kind in Canada.

TRAP WINNIPEG JAIL BREAKERS

Three Men Who Walked Out of Dauphin Prison Recaptured By Police and Citizens

Canadian Press

Dauphin, Man., July 29.—Two armed constables, waist-deep in water, captured a trio of jail-breakers yesterday less than twelve hours after they had snatched their way out of the Dauphin Jail. The three escaped men, who shattered the lock on their cell and walked out the front door of the prison, were apprehended by the policemen when they fled from a posse to the Vermilion River.

Citizens and police joined in the chase when Joseph Kraft, twenty-two, and Harvey Jones, twenty-five, both of Winnipeg, and John B. Riordan, twenty-seven, of Vancouver, escaped from the jail at mid-day. Before dusk, the three had been surrounded and were being forced toward the river, where the constables lay in hiding, surprised at encountering the half-submerged prisoners. The jail-breakers surrendered. They had been serving sentences of one to three years.

Port Mann Bridge Is Burnaby Plan

Edmonds, B.C., July 29.—Reaffirming its previous stand against the proposed bridge over the Fraser River from Ladner to Lulu Island, the Burnaby Council yesterday endorsed a letter from W. A. Pritchard declared should be sent to Ottawa and Victoria, protesting against the Deas Island project and urging the construction of a bridge from Port Mann.

The letter expressed opposition to toll bridges, but agreed that at present there seemed to be no other way of obtaining necessary finances.

He urged, however, that any bridge constructed across the Fraser River ought to provide for railway transportation as well as vehicular traffic, and that the logical location for such a bridge was at Port Mann, where it would connect with the new central arterial highway.

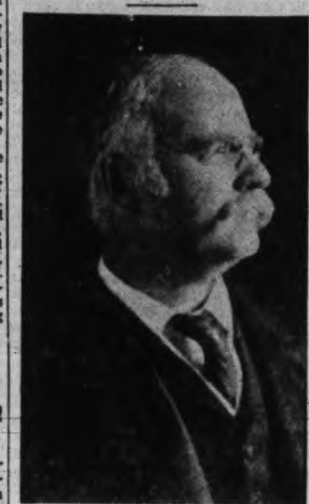

AUTO SALES LOWER

For the last six months, sales total 1,568,478, against 2,126,580 in the corresponding six months of last year.

EX-CABINET MEMBER DIES AT MONTREAL

Arrangements Made For Funeral of Late Rt. Hon. C. J. Doherty

LATE RT. HON. C. J. DOHERTY

Westmount, Quebec, July 29.—Arrangements were being made today for the funeral of the late Rt. Hon. Charles Joseph Doherty. The former Minister of Justice of Canada died at his home here yesterday evening following a fight against pneumonia.

First of all a teacher, later a soldier and a barrister, a business man, a judge and a federal cabinet minister, Rt. Hon. Charles Joseph Doherty, K.C., D.C.L., LL.D., played a notable and versatile part in Canadian affairs. Born in Montreal in 1856, the son of Hon. and Mrs. Marcus Doherty, his father being a judge of the Superior Court of Quebec. He was educated at the Christian Brothers' School, St. Mary's Jesuit College, McGill University, St. Francis Xavier College and Ottawa University, at all of which institutions he took high honors. He was called to the bar of the province of Quebec in 1887, after he had served as a captain in the expeditionary force sent out against Louis Riel.

Mr. Doherty was created King's Counsel and pleaded before the Privy Council. After taking part in several outstanding cases he was appointed puisne judge of the Superior Court of Quebec. In 1906 he retired from that position with a pension.

LECTURED AT MCGILL

Appointed director of half a dozen banks and financial institutions, Mr. Doherty was also chosen as professor of law at McGill University, and remained at his Alma Mater in that capacity for several years.

After fighting two successful campaigns as a candidate for the provincial Legislature, he was elected a member of the House of Commons for the Borden constituency in 1911 and in 1918. He was re-elected in 1921 and became Minister of Justice in the Borden cabinet, a post he also filled in the Meighen cabinet.

He was made a British Privy Councillor January 1, 1920.

AT PEACE CONFERENCE
Mr. Doherty rendered conspicuous service to Canada after the war. He was one of the Dominion representatives who attended the Versailles Peace Conference and his name appears as a Dominion representative of the treaty drawn up there and signed by the Allies and Germany. He also attended several meetings of the League of Nations at Geneva.

In 1888 he married Catherine Lucy Barnard, daughter of Edmund Barnard of Montreal. There are one son and four daughters.

In addition to his political, legal business and educational activities, Mr. Doherty found time to undertake the duties consequent on office in numerous Roman Catholic and Irish-Canadian association and societies in Montreal.

He secured degrees from the following institutions: McGill University, Bachelor of Civil Law and Elizabeth Torrance Gold Medal, 1876; Doctor of Civil Law, 1893; Doctor of Law, 1918; Bachelor of Arts, St. Francis Xavier College, Doctor of Laws, Ottawa University in 1895.

FOODS AND HOT DAY FATIGUE

Most persons are easily fatigued on hot days. So common is this experience that we think it natural. But it is not. A properly fed person will be just as alert mentally and physically on hot as on cool days. It is acid residues in the blood from eating acid-forming foods that cause hot weather tiredness. Foods that alkalize and vitalize the blood and body cells keep one "in the pink" on the hottest days. Roman Meal is the only alkaline cereal or grain food. It should be the grain food of choice for cereal, bread and cakes, especially during hot days. It can be eaten uncooked or in cold, recipes for both on package. Hot or cold, cooked or uncooked, it alkalizes the blood and pepes you up on hot days. Milk, vegetables and fruit also alkalize and should be freely used with Roman Meal in summer to build up resistance against winter strains and diseases. CUSTOMS RULINGS

Ottawa, July 29.—Because of legal conflict over Canada's jurisdiction beyond the three-mile limit, the Customs yesterday accepted an amendment to the Customs Act suggested by the Senate. Whether the act was enforceable beyond the three-mile limit was being determined by the judicial committee of the Privy Council in London, said Premier Bennett, and the Senate amendment would clarify this situation pending judgment.

NEW DRILL HALL FOR VANCOUVER UNITS PLANNED

Vancouver, July 29.—A drill hall for artillery and cavalry units of Vancouver will be constructed this summer in the vicinity of Connaught Park, West Tenth Avenue, east of Larch Street.

Announcement to this effect contained in Ottawa dispatches has been verified by military authorities in Vancouver.

On Monday of this week the Commons voted $14,000 in supplementary estimates for purchase of a site and to start construction of the building. Land has not been bought yet, but several sites in the Kitsilano district are being considered and it is expected purchase of one will be completed soon. Construction of the building will likely be started soon after the land has been acquired.

Cavalry and artillery units at present are using the old Horse Show Building on Georgia Street, near the entrance to Stanley Park.

The decision to erect a small armory in Kitsilano probably results from a decision of Hon. D. M. Sutherland, Minister of Defence, on his visit here a few months ago. At that time, it is said, he was considering whether to construct one large central armory in some convenient place, such as the Kitsilano district, or to build two or three small drill halls to serve the greater Vancouver area.

LITTLE CHANGE IN EMPLOYMENT IN B.C. IS SEEN

Canadian Press

Ottawa, July 29.—Employment in Canada showed a slightly upward swing at the beginning of July, but it failed to equal the usual seasonal increase. A statement released Monday by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics shows 7,803 reporting firms employed 940,222 workers, 1,794 more than on June 1.

The increased employment of July lifted the index number to 103.8 as compared with 103.6 in the preceding month. The index figure for July, 1930, was 118.9, while in July, 1929, it was 124.7. The year 1926 is used in the index as the basis of 100.

Largest gains were reported in construction, but services also afforded heightened employment.

In the provinces most noteworthy advances were in construction, but services also showed improvement; on the other hand, mining, transportation, trade and manufacturing recorded reduced activity.

Practically no change as compared with June was reported in British Columbia, where the index stood at 97.9, as compared with 113.5 on July 1, 1930, when a slight gain was also indicated.

Dividend Cut Is First By Steel Since 1915

New York, July 29.—Cut by U.S. Steel Corporation directors yesterday from the $7 dividend basis to $4 a year on the common is the first cut in a regular dividend by the company since 1915.

The common was put on a regular $7 basis in the second quarter of 1926. The regular dividend of $1.75 on the preferred stock was declared yesterday.

Total earnings for the second quarter of 1931, after deducting operating expenses and taxes, were $13,817,524 compared with $19,464,838 in the previous three months and $47,061,304 in the second quarter of 1930.

Net income for the quarter, after deduction of bond interest, was $7,391,355 against $6,765,057 in the March 31 quarter and $32,126,717 for the June 30 quarter of last year. The preferred dividend requirements were $6,304,919.

Unfilled orders on June 30 totaled 5,479,323 tons, compared with 3,995,390 tons on March 31 and 3,968,064 tons on June 30, 1930.

GRANDSON OF EX-KAISER IS BEFORE COURT

Bayreuth, Germany, July 29.—Alexander Hohenzollern, grandson of the former Kaiser, was arrested yesterday on a charge of insulting citizens in the Customs Act suggested by the Senate. Whether the act was enforceable beyond the three-mile limit was being determined by the judicial committee of the Privy Council in London, said Premier Bennett, and the Senate amendment would clarify this situation pending judgment.

The British army is technically the best, and the French the best trained, according to Gen. von Seeckt, German ex-Commander-in-Chief.

No Change In Wage Level Urged

Washington, July 29.—A White House statement issued after yesterday's cabinet meeting said no member of the administration had expressed the view that the policy advocating maintenance of wages should be changed.

The statement said: "No member of the administration has expressed the view or holds the view that the policy of the administration in advocating maintenance of wages should be changed. It has not been changed."

NEW SUPERIOR OF ST. JOSEPH'S IS APPOINTED

Sister Mary Ludovic of Juneau to Assume Charge This Week

Sister Mary Mildred Transferred to Vancouver Academy

Sister Mary Mildred of the Order of St. Ann, for the last six years Superior of St. Joseph's Hospital, and for six years prior to that in charge of St. Ann's Academy, will leave this week for Vancouver, where she has been appointed Superior of the Little Flower Academy, Shaughnessy Heights. She will be succeeded at the hospital by Sister Mary Ludovic, who for the last six years has been in charge of the order's hospital at Juneau, Alaska, and who will arrive from the north this week to take over her new duties.

It is customary in the Order of St. Ann for the Sisters in charge to be assigned to new branch houses every six years, but in the case of Sister Mary Mildred, she has been in Victoria for more than twelve years, as prior to her appointment as Superior of St. Ann's Academy, she was on its teaching staff for some years. Her pending departure will occasion widespread regret, not only to those with whom she has been closely associated during her kindly and efficient administration of the hospital, but to the many former pupils of the academy who benefited by her loving guidance.

A tangible token of the regret felt at her departure was forthcoming yesterday, when the executive of the hospital women's auxiliary of the hospital waited upon Sister Mary Mildred and presented her with a handsome fountain pen and pencil as a parting gift, with the united good wishes of the members in her new sphere of work. Mrs. F. J. Bell made the presentation with a graceful little tribute, to which the recipient feelingly responded, recalling her long and pleasant associations with the members of the auxiliary, and assuring them of a prayerful remembrance always. Following the little ceremony, the executive was the guest of the Sisters at tea.

ANNUAL RETREAT ENDS
The change in the hospital administration synchronizes with the close of the annual eight days' retreat of the Religious Order of St. Ann. Among the Sisters from all parts of the west, numbering about 125, who took part in the retreat, was Sister Corda Gessu, from Nulato, on the Lower Yukon. This mission was founded in 1897, and is one of the furthest outposts of the order.

SAVED BY PLANE
Sister Corda Gessu, it will be remembered, suffered a serious accident a few years ago, falling and fracturing her leg so badly that she had to be brought down to the hospital at Fairbanks for surgical treatment. This was an instance where an airplane was responsible for saving a life, as without the prompt medical care she would almost certainly have died, and to make the trip by dog team would have taken seven days, whereas by airplane it required merely five hours. The news of her accident was flashed from Nulato to Fairbanks, and the plane left immediately and brought her in.

ABSOLUTE SILENCE
One of two of the other visiting Sisters at the recent retreat came from Juneau, Alaska, including the Superior of the Order for southern Alaska. During retreat the nuns observe an eight days' absolute silence and meditation, with four instructions daily on their duties, vows, teaching, care of the sick, and the end of creation. The silence is so strictly observed that even necessary messages connected with the routine of the household are written instead of being spoken.

Hospital authorities state that her condition is serious.

BUSINESS WOMEN MEET IN VIENNA

Lena Madessin Phillips Urges Them to Work for Disarmament

Vienna, July 29.—Business and professional women of twelve countries were urged here last night by Lena Madessin Phillips, of New York, president of their international congress, to work for disarmament and peace. Asserting that women have proved themselves equal to men in mental powers—even though we may not be their equals in experience, Miss Phillips, president of the International Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, called on the delegates to bring about "the destruction of racial and economic barriers."

CALIFORNIAN IS 114 YEARS OLD

Pedro Yecassa Never Followed Any Scheme; Just Lived Simply

Haywood, Calif., July 29.—Pedro Yecassa is not particularly impressed with being 114 years old. The greatest joys he received from his birthday for the last week, left to-day for Seattle, were two telegrams from his children, a "boy" of sixty-nine and a "girl" fifty-nine, who live in the east. "I don't know how I happened to stick around as long as I have," he said. "I live as I please and choose to live simply. There's nothing to brag about in my way of living, and I never followed any scheme—I've just enjoyed it, that's all."

"About Zoro Agha, the aged Turk, who has lived a few decades longer than Yecassa, he only said: 'I can't help feeling cynical about Zoro. He must be getting tired.'"

ENGLISHWOMAN PREFERS RUSSIA

Communist Who Went to Lady Astor's Expense Five Years Ago Satisfied

Moscow, July 29.—An open letter to Lady Astor by an Englishwoman who said she came to Russia with her husband and two children five years ago in answer to Lady Astor's offer to pay the expenses of any Communist "with the courage to go to Soviet Russia with his family," was published yesterday, declaring that nothing could induce the woman to return to her native country.

In a letter dated Leningrad, July 21, the writer, whose name was given as Mrs. Ray Morton, said that she and her husband had accepted the public challenge of Lady Astor and had left London with their family on August 22, 1926, for the trip to Russia at Lady Astor's expense.

Mrs. Morton's husband, a coal miner, she wrote, died two years after their arrival of a chronic disease from which he suffered before he came to Soviet Russia.

"My comrades helped me by taking care of me and my children," she wrote. "There is no reason which could induce me to leave Russia to go to my old fatherland, where as a widow I could afford only a miserable living for my children. Here they receive an education. I have been given every opportunity to earn for myself and maintain my children. This makes me happy and satisfied."

She expressed the hope that Lady Astor would observe conditions in Soviet Russia impartially, and on her return to England tell what she saw without prejudice and fear.

CRITICS SCORE NOTED ACTRESS

Ethel Barrymore Defends "Worst Performance of Her Career"

Denver, Colo., July 29.—A murmur of surprise and conjecture which followed the opening performance of Ethel Barrymore in "The School for Scandal" here Monday had led to-day to publication of a front-page article signed by the famous actress in which she explained "what critics called the 'worst performance of her career.'"

The star related a curtain of darkness seemed to hang over her throughout the play, and that her feeble attempt in an old-fashioned curtsy was caused by a strained ligament in her left leg.

Evening paper criticisms yesterday were outspoken in their censure. The Denver Post said: "Miss Barrymore her hosts of Denver friends by a bizarre and unorthodox portrayal."

JOAN BENNETT HURT IN FALL FROM HORSE

Hollywood, Cal., July 29.—Joan Bennett of the Bennett family, famous on stage and screen, was thrown from a horse while appearing in a picture to-day and taken to a hospital for examination. Officials feared she had broken her leg. She was being filmed in "She Wanted a Million a Year," by Fox when the accident occurred.

WHEN THE BUSINESS GIRL COOKS

I had such an interesting letter this morning from a typical business girl—Jeanette T.—. She lives in Montreal, spends her daytime hours in a big investment company and holds a position of responsibility. But, when the clock hands point to closing time, she becomes another person—a typical home maker, even if her home is only a tiny apartment.

When she cooks, she wants not only delicious results, but she wants to get them easily, surely and economically. Moreover, she has an open mind to new ideas, and keen judgment in valuing them—in cookery as much as in business.

She tells me that she uses Carnation Milk in all her cookery. Her straightforward comment is: "I like the way the food tastes with Carnation Milk."

Very generously, she passes along her discoveries to her friends, and asks me to send my "lovely cook book" to others in the office, and to keep her supplied with my latest recipes.

Isn't that a characteristic letter? I know that what she has found out about Carnation Milk other women will find—that it gives better results in cookery than even the best of bottled milk, that it is the most convenient and economical form of milk, that it is absolutely dependable as to richness and purity, and that its double creaminess and finely broken up cream particles give a fineness of texture and richness of flavor to every food in which Carnation Milk is used. Carnation Milk is simply the best of milk protected at the source. It comes from clean herds, housed in clean barns milked by clean hands into clean utensils. This safeguarded milk is evaporated to double richness and sterilized for safekeeping.

I want you to try one of the recipes which my Montreal friend special likes. And I want you to send for whole books of recipes as well. Just write for the free Carnation Cook Book to Carnation Co., Limited, 134 Abbot St., Vancouver, B.C.

USE THE SAFEGUARDED MILK

Because the cream is broken up minutely, Carnation Milk gives to any dish a smooth, velvety texture which even the best of bottled milk cannot equal. Through the services of Carnation "field men," dairymen are encouraged to build up their herds and taught strict standards of cleanliness thus safeguarding Carnation Milk at the source. And this protection continues until Carnation Milk reaches you in its hermetically sealed containers. (See recipe above.)

YOUR BABY and MINE

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

ONE QUART OF MILK DAILY IN ANY FORM IS ENOUGH FOR CHILD

Our goal in child training is to move the child from one stage of development to the next as rapidly as he is able. This is not forcing; it is just taking advantage of natural growth and development, and making those changes which will be most interesting and acceptable to the child at each period.

It is certain that if we hold a baby at some level of development too long, we find him stubborn and resistant to change, while if we begin early and work up slowly to the change he accepts it. We all know that if the baby has had a cup for water and orange juice from the time he could sit up, or has been allowed to handle a spoon and "puddle about" with it at nine months or sooner, he will be able to drink beautifully at one year and make good headway with spooning up his solid foods. We also know that other babies not so trained must be fed, and demand all milk by bottles. It is largely a matter of patient training and in initiating this training early.

THREE MEALS ADVANTAGEOUS

This partly answers Mrs. M. M., who wanted to know the advantages of a three-meal-a-day schedule. The advantages are threefold: when the baby can patiently wait five hours for his meal, and can eat a larger diet which will satisfy him that long, he has moved upward toward definitely adult standards. The advantage to the mother is obvious: fewer meals are incident with the family meals—an advantage that should appeal to any busy mother.

Mrs. M. M. also asks: "How much milk should a baby of ten months old, weighing twenty-two pounds, take? If he gets only three meals a day, how shall this be distributed? What is the usual measurement of a cup of milk? I never see anything definite on this."

QUART OF MILK DAILY

Thirty-two ounces of milk is one quart, and furnishes four eight-ounce feedings. The usual feeding bottle holds eight ounces, and the ordinary measuring cup the same amount. Coffee or tea cups fall below this standard. Any baby over twenty pounds in weight should have a quart of milk daily. If he is under ten or eleven months, dilute the milk with water, add some sugar and put it into five bottles. Otherwise, four feedings are the usual amount.

Most babies of ten months still get four eight-ounce feedings. Recently I advised three for a particular baby who had no appetite for four meals. Usually 6, 10, 3, 4 is the interval, and eight ounces of whole milk each time would be the right amount.

On the three meal schedule the baby will have one cup of milk at each meal, and the other cup can be used in cooking the solid foods. Cereal is more appetizing when cooked in milk—one cup can be used that way or in milk pudding or custard. Reserve one quart daily for baby and you'll not find it difficult to use it, even if not all of it is taken as a beverage.

My leaflet, "Week's Menu for the Child From One to Two Years," will help you to plan the meal after the baby is past infancy. Send a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request for this leaflet to the "Your Baby and Mine" department of this newspaper.

ENLARGEMENT OF Y.W.C.A. PLANNED

Seek Power to Move Old Structure to Make Way For Building

Enlargement of the present Y.W.C.A. quarters through expenditure of between $45,000 and $50,000 on construction, is now planned, it was revealed by James Forman at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the City Council. Mr. Forman supplemented remarks of a delegation seeking the council's permission to move a wooden structure now adjoining the main building to make way for the new structure. Moving of the wooden building is contrary to regulations, it being within the fire limits.

A speaker for the delegation said the institution did not have enough accommodation at the present time. The wooden structure which it is proposed to move is adjacent to the main building and houses elderly residents of the institution. It is planned to stucco and re-roof this building in addition to making the alterations to the main building, the whole costing between $45,000 and $50,000, Mr. Forman said.

The Victoria and District Fire Underwriters' Board, in a letter to the council, warned the city to go slow in allowing a relaxation of the by-law in this respect.

The matter was referred to the fire wardens, building inspector and city solicitor for reports.

SALVATION ARMY PLANS TAG DAY

Appeal Saturday to Help Work Among Rescued Girls and Babies

Sixty years of amazing results have made the Salvation Army's reputation, and the Army is living up to its reputation. During the past year almost 600 girls have been cared for in the various rescue homes of the Army throughout western Canada, with satisfactory results. At the present time the Army has twenty-five rescue homes, children's homes, hospitals and hostels throughout the west, each one of which is able to give a good report of the success that has attended the work, and may thrilling human-interest stories can be gleaned.

To help along the social and rescue work in this province, the annual tag day is being held on Saturday, the day being specially designated as "Babies' Day." Over 400 British Columbia girls and their babies have been successfully cared for in the provincial Rescue Home during the past three years, the records showing that 87 per cent of these cases have been successfully rehabilitated.

From early morning the familiar Army bonnet will be seen upon the street corners, and it is hoped that there will be a generous response.

"Cosmetic rooms" where women can make up are to be a feature of a new theatre at Thornton Heath, Surrey, England.

Mr. Spotswood and the new Mrs. Spotswood, formerly Mrs. Stevens

Trading wives and children as casually as an ordinary business transaction, F. L. Stevens and George E. Spotswood, friends of Pomona, Calif., exchanged their families to the satisfaction of all concerned. Each couple has two children, a boy and girl, the eldest being nineteen years of age. While Mr. Spotswood and the new Mrs. Stevens were in Nevada fixing things up, Mr. Stevens and Mrs. Spotswood took care of the four children. The two couples, as things stand now, are shown here.

"It is regulating me," she says

"I feel like a Different Woman"

"I TOOK Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for painful and irregular periods. I had no color in my face and felt draggy."

"My mother told me about the medicine last summer. Since taking it I suffer less and it is regulating me."

"My color is normal and I feel like a different woman," writes Mrs. David Thomson, 37-9th Street, N.W., Portage La Prairie, Manitoba. Won't you try a bottle?

Windsor, was elected first vice-president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. A. S. MacFarlane, of Fredericton, who was recently appointed superintendent of education for New Brunswick; A. Ricker, of Saint John, was elected vice-president to fill the place formerly occupied by Miss Straight.

Recognition that "a sense of professional responsibility is taking shape," and a strong plea for creation of a "national education consciousness" in the profession were chief notes in the presidential address of John W. Barnett, Edmonton.

Following the address of the president, the secretary, M. J. Caldwell, of Regina, submitted his report of the year, which dealt with the seriousness of the situation in regard to the prevailing depression. Western Canada, in particular, was faced with the certainty of a crop failure. Among the people there was a growing feeling that something was fundamentally wrong with an economic system which produces in abundance and yet tolerates a condition of want and extreme poverty in the midst of plenty. As educators the teachers must face the question, study the problem and assist mankind in finding a solution.

WILL DISCUSS RECREATION

Canadian Press

Toronto, July 29.—Addresses by Rev. Dr. L. P. Jacks, principal of Manchester College, Oxford; Col. Hanford MacLider, United States Minister to Canada; and Joy Elmer Morgan, editor of The Journal of the National Education Association, Washington, D.C., will be features of the Canada-United States Recreation Congress to be held in Toronto, October 5 to 9. This is the eighteenth such gathering sponsored by the National Recreation Association, but the first in Canada, where progress in public recreation has been rapid during the past ten years.

The Earl of Beasborough, Governor-General of Canada, has agreed to serve as honorary patron of the conference, and Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Prime Minister of the Dominion, is the honorary president.

Dr. John H. Finley, associate editor of The New York Times, will preside, and Joseph Lee, of Boston, president of the N.R.A., will summarize the findings of the conference at its last session. Sustaining public support of recreation during the present period of industrial depression will be one of the most important topics on the program. Among the other subjects will be revenue producing facilities in park and recreation systems, the extension of park recreation service, trends in pre-school play, rural recreation, recreation among religious groups, industrial recreation, winter sports and trends in girls' athletics.

A concert by the Toronto Mendelssohn choir of 300 voices, a programme by the sixty-five-piece symphony orchestra of Niagara Falls, New York; native folk dances by Swedish and Ukrainian groups in Hamilton, Ontario; social dancing and games, and a tour of Toronto are among the attractive entertainment features arranged for the convention.

The American Institute of park executives is scheduled to meet in the same city a week prior to the opening of the Recreation Congress. Exhibits of playground and recreation equipment, books, and supplies will be on view in the Royal York Hotel, headquarters of the convention. Consultants in nearly every phase of the public recreation programme will be on hand for free service to all delegates.

Says Teachers Shirk Social Responsibilities

Denver, Colo., July 29.—Teachers were chided for their failure to assume their full social responsibilities in an address by Henry R. Linville of New York, president of the American Federation of Teachers, in an address at the fourth biennial conference of the World Federation of Education Associations yesterday evening.

"As long as the teachers of the country are willing to sit back supinely and question nothing," said Linville, "no challenge is made of their work."

New Westminster Royals Show Courage and Team Spirit

Reach Canadian Football Final With Only Make-shift Eleven

Lester Patrick Comes in for Rebuke From Mr. Mike Rodden

John McGraw Is in Field for Additional Coast Ball Players

MUCH credit is due the New Westminster Royals football club for battling their way into the Canadian championship final for the third time in four years. The British Columbia club climaxed two weeks of splendid football Monday evening by vanquishing Winnipeg Irish in the western final and the right to oppose the eastern titleholders in the deciding series for the national title. The Royals, who are defending champions, boast eleven of fighters who may be depended upon to put up a great struggle to again win the Dominion title for the west.

The Royals deserve all the more credit when it is considered they are playing without five of their regular members, who are under suspension for refusing to play against the English team, that recently completed a tour of Canada. It says a lot for their courage and team spirit that they have carried on so successfully under such a handicap. Even though playing with a makeshift team, the Royals have uncorked some brilliant football to triumph over the Edmonton T.N.R. Alberta champions, and then go on to defeat Winnipeg Irish. B.C. fans are pulling for them to take the eastern titleholders into camp.

It seems a pretty stiff penalty to make a team enter a Dominion competition without five of their regular players. The Royals were delayed in leaving to play Edmonton because they were forced to chase around in order to get enough players together to field a team. Imagine a club composed of players entirely unfamiliar with each other's play fighting their way into the Canadian final. Victory in the final would be a fitting climax to their great performance.

Mike Rodden, sports editor of The Toronto Globe, has taken a nasty slap at the managerial methods employed by Lester Patrick in handling the New York Rangers National Hockey League Club. Rodden makes a onslaught on the Victoria veteran over his policy of preferring western players, and intimates that few of the Springfield team, who won a mid-league title last year, which is the Rangers' farm club, will be found in a Ranger uniform next year.

Rodden has the following to say about Lester: "Judging by the policy now being pursued by Lester Patrick, manager of the New York Rangers hockey team, even the great young players who won a championship for Springfield last season are quite likely to be ignored when the final selection is made, all of which means that it will be some time before the Rangers will win the N.H.L. title or the Stanley Cup again."

"The latest dispatch from Vancouver is to the effect that the services of some other than Gordon Savage of the Seattle Salmons have been sold to the Rangers. Savage was the best of the defense men who tried out with Kitchener, Toronto and London in the International League, only to be found wanting in ability."

"There are any number of players superior to Savage, but they have had the misfortune, as far as the Rangers are concerned, to hail from the east. Among them are 'Old' Hextimer, 'Yip' Foster, 'Sparky' Vall, Chapman, now with the Boston Bruins, and Seibert, the Springfield defence star."

"Savage will get a break in that, being a westerner, he will find favor with Lester Patrick, the man who guides a team built up by Conny Smythe of Toronto. Recruits get short shift under the Patrick regime, but in the case of Savage it may be a different story."

"Gratified by the success of Johnny Vergez, whom he bought from Oakland, of the Pacific Coast League, John J. McGraw has turned to the west again in an effort to strengthen the New York Giants. Chief Bender, New York scout, is now on the Coast with orders to line up a pitcher and an outfielder now and tab a few others for later consideration."

Bender is looking closely at Ed Bowman, Portland pitcher; Joe Coleman, lanky outfielder of the same club; Tony Freitas, the Sacramento left-hander; Thalt and Huff, the Oakland outfielders; Coy the Seattle catcher, and Sam Gibson, San Francisco right-hander. Freitas and Coy are the most-wanted players in the Coast League, but their price tags are exceedingly fancy, and it remains to be seen how much bidding there will be for them this year.

Vancouver, July 29.—With third round matches, out of the way, players in the men's singles at the Canadian tennis championship tourney, which is being played here this week, will battle to-day for the right to enter the quarter-finals. Likewise the women players to-day will seek places in the quarter-finals of their division.

In the men's division it will be the eight seeded players against the remainder of the surviving field.

Lost—One World Light Heavyweight Boxing Champion

New York, July 29.—The more whimsical aspects of the boxing business engaged the attention of the New York State Athletic Commission yesterday.

Jimmy Johnston, promoter, pleaded that someone find Maxie Rosenbloom, world light heavy-weight champion, and make him do a little training for his bout August 5, with Jimmy Slattery, Buffalo.

Jimmy said he had been unable to find him. The commission assured Johnston it would send deputies out and see if Maxie couldn't be located and told to go to work.

BRYNJOLFSON AND MORRISON ARE DEFEATED

Local Amateur Golfers Lose to Wood and Black in Vancouver Exhibition 3 and 1

Four Players Fail to Show Usual Form; Left Yesterday for Montreal

Vancouver, July 29.—British Columbia amateur golf aces did not look so good in their exhibition match at Shaughnessy Heights picturesque course yesterday afternoon previous to leaving to compete in the Canadian championships at Montreal early next month.

Freddy Wood and Ken Black, Vancouver, took a pretty pitch for victory over Harold Brynjolfson and Bobby Morrison, Victoria stalwarts, 3 and 1, but it was pretty spotty golf, with some of the players up to their usual brilliancy.

None of the boys were hitting the ball consistently, though Freddy Wood was about the steadiest of the group. Black was very wild at times. Morrison, the youth with the big hand and strong arms, played the best golf in the first half, but lost his putting touch on the home-ward journey. Brynjolfson had a lot of trouble with his tee shots.

"Savage will get a break in that, being a westerner, he will find favor with Lester Patrick, the man who guides a team built up by Conny Smythe of Toronto. Recruits get short shift under the Patrick regime, but in the case of Savage it may be a different story."

The eight favorites, Dr. Jack Wright, Montreal; Marcel Rainville, Montreal; John Murphy, San Francisco; Gilbert Nunn, Toronto; Walter Martin, Regina; Henry Prusoff, Seattle; Mel Dranga, Seattle, and Ossie Ryall, Vancouver, will encounter the stiffest opposition yet offered them. Wright looks to have the toughest assignment, being pitted against Lloyd Nordstrom, University of Washington star, from Seattle. Neither Ryall nor Dranga appear to have "soft" spots, the former being scheduled to appear against the hard-hitting veteran John Edwards, Victoria, and Dranga being pitted against Joe Coughlin, the southpaw star from San Francisco.

OTHER MATCHES
In the other matches, Prusoff will meet Laurason Driscoll, San Francisco; Martin will clash with Merle Moore, Tucson, Ariz.; Murphy will play Wally Scott, Tacoma; Rainville will seek to advance at the expense of Don Lewis, Portland; and Nunn will play Jack Brown, Vancouver.

The four seeded stars in the women's singles apparently are scheduled for easy matches to-day. Edith Cross, San Francisco, and seeded number one, will play Miss Marjorie Postlethwaite, San Jose, Calif.; Olive Wade, Toronto, the defending champion, will clash with Phyllis White, Vancouver; Marjorie Leeming, Victoria, will meet Helen Goodman, Vancouver, and Helen Marlowe, Los Angeles, is scheduled to appear against Mrs. Ben Rose, Vancouver. Mrs. Rose yesterday eliminated Jean Burritt of Toronto, one of the favorites outside the seeded players, in a major upset.

Included in the other women players reaching the third round with well-earned victories in second round matches yesterday were Mrs. F. Lewis, Winnipeg; Mrs. Mary Haggart, Vancouver; Mrs. Gordon Pirt, Winnipeg; and Dot Perow, San Francisco.

Favorites in the men's doubles also advanced in yesterday's play. Rainville and Wright, the Montreal pair, had little trouble in disposing of a couple of Vancouver youths, and Nunn and Martin, the Toronto-Regina combination, won by default.

Play in all doubles events as well in the boys' and girls' junior singles will continue to-day also.

JUNIORS, UNDAUNTED, FILE ENTRIES FOR SENIOR TIMES SWIM

Undaunted by the cancellation of the Junior Times through-Victoria swim, two girls, one of them twelve-year-old Theima Aspinwall, who was the youngest contestant in the event last year, and Helen Monk, a seventeen-year-old mermaid, to-day brought in their entries for the long grind from the Causeway to the Gorge. Their entries, along with that of Carrie Grey, Crystal Garden-swimming team member, assures a good battle among the fair sex contenders in the long race.

Information has been received from Vancouver of the effect that George Burrows, winner of the Times trophy for the last two years, will be over for the event. George is swimming well this season and should make a good attempt to better his record-breaking time of 1930. It is also understood George Dricos, veteran Greek aquatic performer of Vancouver, will compete.

With only one more day left for registration, prospective swimmers are urged to file their names immediately.

Toronto Scottish To Oppose Royals In Canadian Final

Capture Eastern Football Championship by 2 to 1 Victory Over Fort William in Second Game of Series; Take Round by 5 to 3; Will Open Final Series With New Westminster To-morrow Evening at Winnipeg; Second Game on Saturday; Best Two Out of Three

Winnipeg, July 29.—Toronto Scottish, a decade ago the greatest soccer team in Canada, came to Winnipeg to-day to reclaim the Dominion title they won in 1921 and have been unable to get back since. Fresh after a hard series with Fort William Legion, Thunder Bay champions, the Scottish squad hoped to topple the reigning titleholders, New Westminster Royals, in the final best-out-of-three-games series here.

The Toronto brigade eliminated Fort William yesterday evening at the Lakehead, winning the two-game round, 8 to 2. They defeated the Fort 3 to 2 and 2 to 1. New Westminster scored Winnipeg Irish, Manitoba champions, in the semi-finals by 6 to 4, losing the second contest 2 to 1, after winning the first, 5 to 2.

Royals and Scottish meet here Thursday night and Saturday afternoon, and a third game will be played Monday if the contenders split the first two.

SCOTTISH PRESSED
Scottish were just as hard-pressed to down the locals in the second contest as in the first, and both games were typical cupies. A tricky wind made play more difficult yesterday evening, and fortune favored the Legion in the draw forcing the visitors to play against the breeze at the outset. It was a grim struggle all the way.

Scottish were deprived of the services of Weir, star left half, just before the game, when he was a victim of sunstroke. He was too ill to accompany the team to Winnipeg yesterday evening. Line-ups:

Fort William—Boughton, Simpson, Murray, Paterson, McKay, McLoughlin, Maguire, Murray, Bain, Byars and McMillan.

Alberta Champion Cricketers Strong For Tourney Here

Captained by Brilliant Skipper Team Will Make Great Effort to Retain Western Canada Title in Match Here Next Week; Seven of Men Who Captured Highest Honors Last Season Included in Line-up; Manitoba Strengthened by Addition of Sam Meston

Captained by T. L. Wright, bowler, batsman and leader extraordinary, and the man to whom British Columbia attributes defeat in the finals of the 1930 tournament, Alberta's western Canada cricket champions will arrive in town on Sunday afternoon to open play in the interprovincial matches against Manitoba at the University School pitch on Monday. Included in the eleven will be seven of the men who won the title last year.

The personnel of the team is as follows: T. L. Wright, captain, L. Parker, C. Falk, R. Hesketh, B. Cartwright, H. C. Jones, W. Campbell, P. Higgs, E. Rimmell, C. Hodges and A. Roughton.

DOUBLE BREAK
Known throughout the west as an exceptionally good bowler whose slow left-arm deliveries break both ways, Captain Wright is recognized as one of the best cricketers in Canada. In team generalship he is a master who has shown his skill repeatedly in matches of the first order.

L. Parker, who learned the game in the Old Country and has played in Edmonton since 1912, is one of the best fielders in the west. He carries a good bat and is a useful change bowler.

C. Falk, who is also a good man at bat, is an artist in the slips and should give some spectacular displays of fielding during the tournament. He, along with Parker and Wright, were among the mainstays on the team last year.

LANCASHIRE MAN
From Lancashire the Albertans have drafted a new man, R. Hesketh. He is a medium to fast bowler, a good fielder and can generally be depended upon to make a fair number of runs.

B. Cartwright, another member of the 1930 championship eleven, will again be seen wearing the Alberta colors. A brilliant fielder and good batter, he should give the opposing team something to worry about.

H. Newton, a new man, will bring a steady bat and good knowledge of the cover-point position in the field to the practice matters on the team last year.

A. Jones, the youngster, who also made the squad last year, is a very powerful bat and an excellent long fielder.

W. Campbell, a good all rounder and hard-hitter, will again be seen in action as will P. Higgs, who will return with a steady bat and good fielding ability after a lay-off of one year.

GIVEN FINE GROUNDING
A graduate of Seven Oaks School, Kent, famous training ground of cricketers, E. Rimmell is counted on to be a big force in Alberta's play. He is a slow, tricky bowler, and a sound bat with a phenomenal ability to cut hard through the slips.

For wicket keeper the champions will have C. Hodges, who, in addition to being one of the best stumpers in the west, is also a batsman of some renown.

A. Roughton, a fast to medium pace bowler and very powerful bat, will complete the team.

Word received here to-day also indicated Manitoba would be considerably strengthened by the addition of Sam Meston to its line-up. Meston, who learned his cricket in Essex and played on the county team as well as for Gloucestershire, is one of the best known men in the game in the west and carries a bat that menaces even the best of bowling.

Yorkshire won their match with Gloucestershire, at Bristol, by nine wickets. Scores were: Gloucestershire, 361 for three wickets; Yorkshire, 96 and 132 (Wensley, 71 wickets for 32 runs); Derbyshire, 117 and 137 runs; one wicket (Stutfield, 78 not out).

SUSSEX WINS
Sussex beat Worcestershire, at Dudley, by an innings and 138 runs. Scores: Worcestershire, 96 and 132 (Wensley, 71 wickets for 32 runs); Derbyshire, 117 and 137 runs; one wicket (Stutfield, 78 not out).

No play was possible at Manchester on account of rain in the match between Nottinghamshire and Lancashire. Nottingham won on the first innings.

Essex won their match with Somerset on the first innings. Somerset making only 28 runs after ten overs, lost one wicket. First innings scores were: Somerset, 224; Essex, 240 for 2 wickets, declared (Crawley, 86).

Middlesex beat Derbyshire on the first innings. Middlesex, 200 runs (Stevens, 90; Slater, 71 wickets for 32 runs); Derbyshire, 117 and 138 for one wicket (Storer, 47 not out).

At Hinchley, Leicestershire also won with a first innings total of 304 runs (Still, 115 against 128 runs for Warwickshire (Batty, four wickets for 3 runs). In the second innings, Warwick scored 167 runs for two wickets (Kem, Welch, 60).

NEW ZEALAND DRAWS
The touring New Zealanders drew with Hampshire at Southampton. Scores were: Hampshire, 104 (Vivian, five wickets for 44 runs) and 87 runs for three wickets, declared (Alcock, six wickets for 38 runs); New Zealand, 79 (Kennedy, seven wickets for 29 runs) and 51 runs for three wickets.

Ken won their match with Surrey at the Kennington Oval, on the first innings. Kent made 257 for seven wickets, declared, in the first innings (Fairweather, 87; Todd, 88), and 67 runs for three wickets, declared, in the second. New York, July 29.—Charley Retzlaff, one of the younger heavyweight stars, knocked out Mateo Osa, socking Spaniard, in 2.30 of the third round of the main ten-round bout here yesterday evening. The RECORD SPEAKS for ITSELF

Throughout the length and breadth of Canada, Turret's are making new records for popularity because of their outstanding quality.

After all, nothing can replace good, honest tobacco; grown and ripened right out in the field under Nature's own sunlight—nothing artificial about that—and the high quality is "inbred."

SAANICH WILL OPEN REGISTER

High School Students Must Enrol in Advance to Aid Economy

Registration for admission to the three Saanich high schools will be necessary. The school board yesterday evening made arrangements for the enrolment to be carried out at Totmie, Cedar Hill and Keating schools, between the hours of 2 and 6 o'clock daily on August 5, 6 and 7.

The registration will enable the board to engage an adequate staff of high school teachers, while holding the staff at a minimum.

The school board will inspect the new rural high schools being erected at Cedar Hill Road and Keating Cross Road, on Wednesday, August 5.

Reporting that repainting of the roofs of McKenzie Avenue and Cedar Hill schools had been completed satisfactorily, Trustee William Jones recommended the contractors be paid.

WILL ABANDON FLYING FIELD

City to Cancel Its Lease of Lansdowne as Field For Airplanes

Cancellation of the city's lease of Lansdowne flying field was decided upon by the City Council yesterday afternoon after the industrial committee had submitted a report in connection with the field.

Alderman W. T. Straith, industrial committee chairman, told the board it was unlikely Ottawa air officials would renew the city's private license at the field in any event. It was necessary to give three months' notice for cancellation of the lease, so it will take effect on October 31.

Alderman Straith pointed out the field had been given a temporary license owing to the fact that Victoria was at that time considering establishment of a permanent field. Lansdowne was not a safe flying field in any event, and air officials who recently inspected it were opposed to it, he said.

EXPORT GRAIN RATE

The council also adopted a recommendation from the committee against any action by the city in construction of a new car-ferry slip at Ogdan Point by which C.P.R. grain cars could be landed. This was a matter for the C.P.R. to deal with, he report stated. In this connection the council had before it a copy of a letter from the C.P.R. to the railway board explaining why the C.P.R. would not give the same export rate on grain to Victoria as Vancouver when it involved a water haulage of eighty-two miles, and Vancouver was now handling all the grain without trouble.

Several matters of minor importance were dealt with rapidly by the council. The Armistice Period Committee asked careful defining, in unemployed relief, between wages and sustenance, especially regarding returned men.

It was decided to reply to a letter from the Trades and Labor Council condemning anybody in the civic service for drawing two wages while in one position by asking the council to cite a specific case.

ASK BETTER SERVICE

The Victoria West Brotherhood asked improvement of the water main connection in that district in view of a recent break which left the area without water for a brief period, but it was felt this work could not be done at present.

The solicitor was instructed to press the city's claim of $140 for damages done to the car of the fire chief in a collision last week against T. W. Hedgewick, who claimed a smaller sum from the city.

The solicitor was authorized to draw up a by-law for licensing of wood vendors who go from door to door selling their goods.

HITLE RANGE LEASE

Copies of the proposed lease under which the city take over Clover Point rifle range for park purposes were filed and laid over until the next meeting.

An agreement under which the W. L. Morgan Fuel Company will haul condensed cut at Thetis Lake by un-employed to the city yards was sanctioned.

In adopting the finance committee's report, countering of cheques by other members of the committee, as well as the mayor was authorized.

FLOWER SHOW OPENS FRIDAY

Victoria Horticultural Society to Exhibit at Chamber of Commerce Auditorium

The Victoria Horticultural Society will hold its eighth annual summer show on Friday and Saturday, in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium. The committee is now completing arrangements for the display of a record showing of fruits, flowers and vegetables, classes having been arranged to meet the requirements of all garden lovers.

The society has been successful in securing a number of good prizes for several of the group. The Wenger trophy is given for the best exhibit of twelve varieties of sweet peas, and the Layrite Nurseries Limited is responsible for the prizes offered for the best entries in the twelve roses section.

Keen competition is expected for the trophy offered by the president for the best exhibit of sweet peas in the show.

The most popular flowers at the show this year will be gladioli, roses and sweet peas.

The class for decorated tables, open to ladies and gentlemen, will be judged by popular vote on the first day of the show.

There will be wild flower and vegetable classes for children under sixteen, and a class in the wildflower for children under twelve.

Prize lists are obtainable at all list stores. Entries must be made to the secretary, F. E. Boulter, 588 Avenue (E 8490) not later than tomorrow evening.

BEFORE you invest in any motor car, consider carefully the advantages of obtaining a General Motors value. You know in advance that your car is specifically designed and constructed for Canadian climatic and road conditions. You can be confident that its Canadian materials and craftsmanship are of the finest. Gratifying, too, is the fact that wherever you may travel throughout North America, the comprehensive terms of the Owner Service Policy relieve your mind of possible service problems. For example, this policy entitles you, within the limits of the new car warranty, to have any defective parts replaced without charge for parts or labor. Such provisions of the Owner Service Policy are the responsibility of General Motors dealers everywhere. Choose from General Motors cars in any price class and you are assured of value that is unequalled. To facilitate your purchase you can buy out of income on the GMAC, General Motors' own economical, time payment plan.

Current Of 110 Volts May Prove Fatal On Entering Vital Tissues

By DR. MORRIS FISHEIN

It has now been quite definitely established that death may result even from 110 volts, provided it is passed through the body at certain points and under certain circumstances. If the body is in contact with a moist surface and if the current passes through portions of the body where there are vital tissues, death is more likely to result than when it passes into the body under other circumstances.

In a recent consideration of the subject, Drs. O. R. Langworthy and W. B. Kouwenhoven emphasized the fact that the location of the contacts determines to a large extent the path-way of the current through the body. For example, if the contacts are made with one arm or leg on the same side, it seems hardly possible that a great amount of current will pass through the head. The brain is easily injured by electricity, and in legal executions it is customary to put one electrode on the skull so that the electricity will pass through the brain. In an analysis of 479 cases, an industrial surgeon found that the current in the vast majority passed through the body by the hands or arms and then passed into the legs. Federal Legislation On Beauharnois Is Urged By Committee

Report Presented to Commons Yesterday Evening Suggests St. Lawrence Power and Canal Development Be Carried Out in Way Designed to Serve Best Interests of All Canada; Lengthy Findings Deal With Campaign Funds and Other Subjects

Canadian Press

Ottawa, July 29.—Legislative action by the Dominion Parliament is suggested in the unanimous report of the Commons committee on the Beauharnois project, which was tabled in the House yesterday evening by Hon. W. A. Gordon, Minister of Immigration and chairman of the committee.

Action to procure the development of the Beauharnois project in such a manner as will best serve the people of the Dominion is urged, the action to be taken without prejudicing the rights of the Province of Quebec. In the event of the Dominion and the province coming into conflict, the committee urges every effort should be put forth to arrive at a satisfactory agreement, so the undertaking may not be imperiled by delay.

The report also recommends that navigation rights and the Dominion's jurisdiction over these be preserved.

That the work on Beauharnois is proceeding on plans which have not been approved by the Governor-in-Council.

That no evidence was adduced that $125,000 in bonds given to John Aird Toronto went to any political party.

SUMS NEEDLESSLY PAID

Dealing with campaign funds paid by R. O. Sweeney, president of the power project, the committee finds that the power project, estimated at $700,000, the committee finds "they were shamelessly, wastefully and needlessly made for the express purpose of obtaining consideration of the company's proposals to the then government."

Turning to Mr. Griffith, the committee finds the secretary-treasurer, in conjunction with Mr. Sweeney and two unnamed directors, "was the instrument by which approximately $300,000 of companies' funds were misused" for alleged campaign purposes.

MANAGEMENT QUESTION

Dealing with prominent figures in the Beauharnois Corporation, the committee suggests that R. A. C. Henry, vice-president and general manager, is not "a fit and proper person to continue in the management of this great public utility." R. O. Sweeney, president, is dealt with at length in connection with campaign fund contributions, and the declaration is made that he, in association with H. B. Griffin and at least two other unnamed directors, "was the instrument by which approximately $300,000 of the company's funds were misused" for alleged campaign purposes.

Personal contributions by Mr. Sweeney to campaign funds which, the committee finds, according to the evidence, were for the purpose of obtaining consideration of the company's proposals to the government, "states the report."

Mr. Griffith, as well as Mr. Henry, according to the report, is involved in the "misuse" of company funds for campaign purposes.

OFFICIALS' EVIDENCE

Evidence given by J. B. Hunter, Deputy Minister of Public Works, and Kenneth M. Cameron, chief engineer of that department, was not considered satisfactory. The evidence of neither of the officers appeared to be given in the manner which one might expect from departmental officials," the report states.

No evidence was adduced, the committee finds, to indicate that any of the $125,000 paid in bonds to John Aird Jr., Toronto, reached any political organization or any person authorized to receive campaign funds. The report goes at length into the transaction whereby Mr. Griffith, at the direction of Mr. Sweeney, paid $125,000 to John Aird. After reviewing the evidence, the committee states Mr. Aird insisted that he belonged to no political organization, and that the arrangement between him and Mr. Sweeney was purely a personal one. The statement of Mr. Aird, the committee reports, is supported by the evidence of various bank officials.

SWEENEY'S WORK

The committee goes into the connection of R. O. Sweeney with the Beauharnois project at great length. The report refers to him as the principal promoter of the Beauharnois project and the present president of the Beauharnois Power Corporation Limited.

After quoting evidence as to the political associations which Mr. Sweeney cultivated, the report proceeds: "It is obvious therefore that from the very beginning of the project, Mr. Sweeney was in mind that he had to associate with him men who could exert influence in political circles at Ottawa and at Quebec."

The report states Mr. Sweeney succeeded in enlisting the help first of Senator Raymond, then Hon. Walter Mitchell, then Frank P. Jones, and finally Senator McDougall.

"Mr. Sweeney was also, in association with H. B. Griffin and at least two other unnamed directors, the instrument by which $300,000 of the company's funds were misused, as he alleges, for campaign purposes," says the report. "This is surely contrary to the purposes for which these moneys were borrowed from the public through the issue and sale of the company's bonds."

The report contains no definite recommendation in respect to Mr. Sweeney. It contents itself with detailing at length the history of contributions to campaign funds by Sweeney as recorded in the evidence.

RETURN OF MONEY

"The committee considers that it returns should be made immediately of any moneys improperly taken from the company's funds for political subscripholder of management preferred shares, a director of the Beauharnois Light, Heat and Power Co., the Beauharnois Construction Co., the Beauharnois Land Company and the Beauharnois Transmission Company."

The report comments: "This expansion is almost comparable to the present Beauharnois project as compared with the original St. Louis feeder."

STERLING GROUP

Again the report continues: "The application of the Sterling Industrial Corporation was allowed to the dormant unit some time ago. On May 18, 1928, Senator McDougall agreed to take over 800 units of the first syndicate, which had been subscribed for by Mr. Sweeney, and which he received in cash from Mr. Winfield Sifton."

"A further payment was made on May 18, in an amount of $15,000, out of moneys which Mr. Sweeney says were received by him from Mr. Sifton by way of a bank draft containing no information as to the person who was providing the funds."

"The 800 units thus acquired by Senator McDougall became—1,600 units on the formation of the second syndicate, and he, in the name of Mr. Sweeney, subscribed, as he had the right to do, for 1,600 more units, at a price of $100 per unit, and for which he agreed to pay $160,000, which he received at the dissolution of the syndicate on December 17, 1929, he had paid $80,000."

TRANSFER MADE

"In the meantime, however, namely, on October 2, 1928, they had been transferred from Mr. Sweeney to John P. Ebbs, a member of the Haydon firm by reason of some instructions from Senator McDougall, about which there seems to be some insolvable mystery and about which there need not have been any mystery at all if the transaction were an ordinary business one."

"As previously pointed out, Senator McDougall, through his representative, Mr. Ebbs, acquired for the five units of the second syndicate, the Sterling Industrial Corporation Limited, 2,000 part interests in the second syndicate."

"These units were given for a corporation of rights of which, as has been pointed out, by Mr. Cameron, chief engineer of the Public Works Department, on page 10 of the evidence, 'would be of no value.'"

"The agreement was made in the fall of 1928, and the Beauharnois Company considered these shares to be of such value that they still remain in the blank and have never been transferred on the books of the company. It can hardly be pretended that this company had any value."

"If so, there were two former applications in the department, one of which at least was based on the acquisition of the Robert rights, which rights were the foundation of the Beauharnois application. Still, the carrying out of the agreement—was made conditional upon the favorable action by the Governor-General-in-Council, and

A. A. Blyth and M. H. Taylor of Victoria are appointed as a special committee to engage a sponsor for the bill when it is introduced in the Legislature.

Aviator Discovers New Landing Place, But Campers Object

Victoria's highly controversial problem over a site for both seaplane and airplane landing bases appeared to be almost solved this morning when Pilot Maurice McGregor set his plane down on the wide stretch of sand at Cordova Bay. But other features interfered. In the first place the pilot was only able to land because the tide was out for about 200 yards, leaving a wide runway of firm sand along the three-quarters of a mile of shore. And then some residents of the district took exception to having the plane zoom down and settle squarely on the beach. Dropping from the sky, McGregor attracted a crowd of several hundred people to the spot where he brought his plane to a halt. All the campers of the district left their activities to watch the machine and crowded around as the pilot explained he had "just dropped in for a swim." So firm was the sand that the marks of the wheels of the plane were hardly visible. But complications arose when complaints were made to the Saanich police, by disturbed campers.

FEW TRANSIENT REGISTRATIONS IN VANCOUVER

Vancouver, July 29.—Registration of transients under the provincial government plan for unemployment relief continues to be much below that anticipated by employment officials, and there is a growing suspicion those who are registered are deliberately ignoring the opportunity. While definite figures have not been issued by the Vancouver office of the Unemployment Service of Canada, it is stated registrations during the first two days were less than 100.

With the announcement from Victoria of an agreement whereby the city and government will co-operate with the registration of all unemployed, officials of the employment service believe the registration of transients will be stimulated. Under the arrangements now completed, it is pointed out, it will be possible for the city to clean up the so-called "jungles" once the machinery for registration has been perfected. This will be ready, according to H. W. Cooper, relief officer, within the next few days.

TARIFF NO AID TO POTATO MEN

Little prospect of better prices for potatoes is seen by the markets branch of the provincial Department of Agriculture. The market bulletin issued to-day says: "Potatoes are still in the doldrums until the early crop is cleared up. There is little hope of recovery. Enough local produce to meet the demand, and other deterrents of outside competition of very little effect. It is purely a matter of supply and demand, which can be very much upset by rush marketing on the part of the growers."

BIG FINANCIERS JOIN BOARD OF HUDSON'S BAY

Shareholders at London Meeting To-day Learn No Dividend in Prospect

Company Over-valued Before War, Major Ashley Cooper, New Head, States

By THOS. T. CHAMPTION
Canadian Press
London, July 29.—"In my considered judgment we are going to have a troubled time," declared Major Ashley Cooper, new governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, at a crowded meeting of stockholders here to-day.

"We are in a very difficult position internally and operating times are extraordinarily difficult," the governor confessed. "So far from any prospect of a dividend next year a heavy loss is inevitable."

Previous meetings of the stockholders had been stormy and officials took the precaution of having two policemen stationed at the doors of the meeting hall. This, however, proved entirely unnecessary. The meeting lasted for two hours and while there were noisy moments, these were largely created by the majority when they decided to accept the future policy as outlined by the new governor.

TO VISIT CANADA
Major Cooper declared that if the company had insisted his governorship regarding the use of cordwood cut by relief workers in city camps became apparent at yesterday's meeting of the council when the board's action in calling tenders for wood supplies was criticized.

While the board did not award the contract for supply of the wood, it was felt there was no need for tenders to be called since the board was informed some months ago that the city would have plenty of wood on hand.

"They should be told plainly to use the city's wood," said Mayor Anson. Alderman John Worthington thought the city might have submitted a tender because the School Board wanted to get the lowest price possible.

"That's ridiculous when the city has to pay the bill eventually," said the Mayor. The council decided to inform the board it had a large quantity of wood on hand which should be used in the schools.

SPACE BEING TAKEN UP AT FAIR GROUNDS

Sheep Auction to Be Added Feature of Provincial Exhibition This Year

Space for manufacturing exhibits at the Provincial Exhibition, which opens at the Willows August 31, is already becoming scarce, and it is expected that officials will have to refuse requests for space before the fair commences. Workmen are already on hand building structures to hold the many exhibits, and a number of manufacturers have signified intention of having permanent stands in the new building.

SHEEP SALES

Considerable interest has been shown by the sheepmen of British Columbia in the proposal of the British Columbia Agricultural Association to conduct a sale at the Willows fair grounds on September 4, when the Provincial Exhibition is in progress. Many sheepmen, who regularly enter, have stated they will have sheep available for auctioning, and breeders throughout British Columbia will be given an opportunity to secure valuable prize stock.

"The idea of holding fair sales during exhibition time has been heartily endorsed," writes C. E. Whitney-Ogilby to W. H. Mearns, secretary of the British Columbia Agricultural Association. "We have had our sheep inspected by a well-known expert, who was here recently," he proceeds, "and we are advised to offer for sale only the best animals. We shall offer fifty rams and ewes of the South-down and Shropshire breeds, all registered purebred animals."

MINISTER OF EDUCATION AT SOOKE TO-NIGHT

RELIEF WOOD FOR SCHOOLS

Council to Tell School Board to Use City Fuel Cut By Unemployed

Ratepayers' Body Repeats Demands On Civic Economy

Asking the City Council to "initiate immediate action" on suggestions for economy advanced by the association some months ago, the Victoria Ratepayers' Association this week forwarded a letter to the mayor and council. The association asks elimination of further grants to the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau until a referendum has been taken, reduction of ten per cent in all civic salaries over $100 per month, reduction of the mayor's indemnity by $1,000 and aldermanic indemnities by $500 yearly and elimination of duplication in civic departments.

The Melody Girl

By RUTH DEWEY GROVES

CHAPTER XXVII

Tommy waited by the gate, longing for a glimpse of Irene, seeing lights in the house and trying to believe that she might be there waiting for him, late as it was, or writing a note to tell him that she didn't want their engagement broken and would marry him as soon as he liked.

It was a ray of hope, but Tommy wrapped it around himself and exulted. Should he go boldly up to the door and ring the door bell? No, he did not think that much. Irene might come out to him if she knew he was there. He waited softly, very softly, then a little louder.

Behind the curtain of an upstairs room a girl peered out at him. It was not Irene, and he did not see her. The girl's heart was pounding like a trip-hammer as she knelt on the floor beneath the window, the better to see him.

Didn't he know... couldn't he see... That Beryl saw that Prentiss had parked his car a little beyond the Everett gate. And it was the limousine, perhaps. Perhaps she might get out of the car with Prentiss and start for the house. What would happen then?

Beryl was thinking less of the scene that might take place than of the hurt that would follow for Tommy.

Would Irene care enough not to cause it? Would she wait with Prentiss until Tommy had gone away? Surely she had heard him whistling?

Beryl prayed that Tommy would go away. But he didn't. He stayed and she could see the glow of one cigarette after another as he lighted them and threw them away after a puff or two at each. Poor kid, what an awful state he must be in! She wondered if Irene had broken a date with him.

Irene had not told her family of the breaking of her engagement to Tommy, but Tommy hadn't been around all that day, or telephoned, and Beryl was puzzled.

Then it came to her that Irene, too, was praying he would leave.

This was the thought, except that Irene was turning the occasion to her advantage. When she saw Tommy at the gate she had been fairly petrified for a moment. Before she could think of what to say or do Tommy's whistle broke the stillness around them.

It startled Prentiss. Nervous, he asked sharply: "What the deuce is that?"

Irene sank back in his arms. "It's that silly Tommy Wilson," she said in disgust, "in a minute he'll be sending her."

"Serenading who?" Irene sighed. "If he only knew how she makes fun of him!"

Prentiss's brows knitted in doubt. "I thought you said she was crazy about him," he reminded Irene and Irene snuggled closer to him. Her sudden melting, which made her safer from discovery by Tommy, seemed fully warranted now that a girl like Beryl had been painted as harsh and unfeeling.

Irene was well pleased with herself. She had said that Beryl made fun of Tommy because she herself was exasperated with him at the moment. It was the first thing that popped into her head. But the way it had succeeded in making her failure to finish saying good-night seem a sweet surrender to irresistible temptation rather than a sudden dropping of pretence appeared to her to be a result of her own cleverness. Altogether, she liked the way she had turned a bad moment to advantage.

There was no doubt that Prentiss was pleased with the change in her mood. He called her all the old love names and even coined new ones. Irene showed no abatement now, but occasionally she drew quickly away from him for a surreptitious glance to see if Tommy were still at the gate.

It seemed to her a long while before he left. To Prentiss it was only a moment before Irene suddenly insisted that he should be before her. Then he could take her, she thought, out on the island somewhere to lunch.

He lingered at the door until she had, by degrees, literally closed it in his face. She did not wait to hear him walk down the porch steps but dashed upstairs to Beryl's room. The door was open, for the room had none too many windows. Irene paused on the threshold and said excitedly, "Hello, are you awake?"

"Wouldn't it be a wonder if I were now," Beryl answered.

Irene stepped inside the room and switched on a light. Beryl blinked and protested but Irene cut her short.

"I've got something to tell you," she said, sitting on the bed and looking at Beryl.

"Wouldn't it be a wonder if I were now," Beryl asked.

Irene pouted. "Why are you always so cranky with me?"

Beryl asked. "Why are you always so cranky with me?"

whistling at the gate while Irene hid in another man's car a few feet away. It might have been a protective act, if Irene had meant it that way, but Beryl knew she had done it because she was as scared as a rabbit.

Should she tell Prentiss Gaylord what she thought of him—taking an engaged girl out... and laughing, maybe, at Tommy.

Irene was at the door when Beryl called. "Wait a minute!" with such commanding earnestness that Irene halted against her will and looked back.

"Did you tell Prentiss that Tommy was looking for you to-night—that you're engaged to Tommy?" Beryl shot at her.

Irene did not answer for a few seconds until a little of her self-assurance returned. Then, "Well," she said with a sneering little laugh, "you could hardly expect me to say that I'm engaged to Tommy when I've just promised to marry Prentiss."

CHAPTER XXVIII

So that was Irene's secret! Beryl was speechless for a moment. Irene engaged to marry Prentiss Gaylord! The younger girl waited for her sister to speak but Beryl only looked at her. Irene waited Beryl to say something, to show by some sign that she was impressed.

She stirred restlessly, but Beryl seemed not to notice. As a matter of fact she had forgotten Irene, standing there in the doorway. She was thinking of Tommy.

Tommy was free now. And Tommy was broken hearted! Beryl sank back on her pillows and closed her eyes.

"Well," Irene said and her voice betrayed a hazy disappointment. "I wanted to tell you in sisterly way, but you wouldn't hear it. So I guess you don't care to hear any more."

Beryl did not answer. After waiting a little longer Irene stalked out of the room and went to rouse her mother and tell her the good news.

They whispered together, paying no attention to Mr. Everett who he said he wished they'd shut up and let him sleep.

Her mother's excitement made up to Irene for Beryl's calm acceptance of her important information. Her self-approval was restored, her ruffled feathers smoothed, and she felt once more like a princess in a fairy tale.

One of the good princesses. Let Beryl take the news any way she liked! Mentally Irene turned up her nose at the thought of eating about what Beryl might have to say.

That was because she didn't guess to whom Beryl would choose to express herself.

While Irene discussed with her mother the glory of her new estate Beryl dressed herself and slipped out of the house. She had to go by way of the front porch roof, but she was adept at athletic stunts, so she found sliding down a porch pillar no trouble at all.

She hastened as fast as she could straight to the Hoffman house. There she stood a moment, surveyed its darkened windows and considering a course of action.

Tommy had plenty of time to get home. But had he time to get to bed? No, he couldn't have gone to bed. Beryl decided. He wouldn't be wanting sleep. Was he in the house? Most likely he was not. Should she sit down somewhere and wait for him? Then she reflected that if he were inside she might sit there all night and not see him.

She wanted to see him. She was sure that Tommy needed her.

Presently she gathered some small stones and tossed them at his window. There was no response except the sound of the stones as they struck lightly against the glass and then fell back to the ground.

Beryl walked around the house to the kitchen windows. No light there. Suddenly she shivered. Her feet were wet from the dew-soaked grass, but she did not think of possible consequences to herself. Tommy was where near. It was awfully late for him to be out. Maybe she could get into the house and search for him.

She would not admit it, but she had a vague fear that Tommy might have come to harm. Or he might have gone away. She seized upon this thought hungrily. It was so much better than thinking that he might have... might have...

Beryl tried all the outside doors and found them locked. Then in despair she sat down on the front steps and thought about life without Tommy. He might never come back again. There was nothing to hold him to her. Presently a finger of pink pointed upward in the eastern sky and Beryl realized that day was dawning. Here was out on the street, clothed in beach pyjamas, and all alone. She might even meet the milkman. He knew her, and Beryl had sense enough to understand that he was likely to put a damaging construction upon the incident. She arose and hurried away.

He knew her, and Beryl had sense enough to understand that he was likely to put a damaging construction upon the incident. She arose and hurried away.

She would not admit it, but she had a vague fear that Tommy might have come to harm. Or he might have gone away. She seized upon this thought hungrily. It was so much better than thinking that he might have... might have...

Beryl tried all the outside doors and found them locked. Then in despair she sat down on the front steps and thought about life without Tommy. He might never come back again. There was nothing to hold him to her. Presently a finger of pink pointed upward in the eastern sky and Beryl realized that day was dawning. Here was out on the street, clothed in beach pyjamas, and all alone. She might even meet the milkman. Is a Man a Woman's Best Friend?

Mr. And Mrs.—

Consider Women More Dependable

The Man's-Woman Who Thinks That Men Are a Girl's Best Friends Makes a Big Mistake: A Man Is a Good Friend to a Woman Only As Long as She Is Gay and Amusing

VERY often you hear a pretty girl boast that she is a man's woman, and that she can never get along with women, and that women don't like her. All of us have had experiences with girls like that. We know girls who lounge around the house all morning, with their hair curl papers and their faces shining with cold cream, until it is time for the afternoon to appear in the evening, and then they come forth transfigured, waved, perfumed and dolled up to the hilt.

We know girls who are dull and stupid and uninteresting until a man comes in sight, and then they suddenly become animated, vivacious and entertaining. We know plenty of girls who never think it worth while to make the slightest effort to be agreeable to their own sex, who do not concern themselves even to be polite to other men. Every day we see girls gushing and palavering over a man, while they snub and insolently snub his wife.

I am always sorry for these girls. I am sorry for them because of their attitude they show themselves up as such poor creatures, for there is something fine signally lacking in the character of the woman who doesn't like other women. She is in an outlaw. She is a traitor to her class. She betrays her own lodge.

And I am sorry for the woman that other women do not like because there is something wrong with her that is sure, sooner or later, to come out, no matter how much it is camouflaged at first by youth and beauty and a charming personality. For women have a sure and unerring instinct about their own sex, and when they turn thumbs down upon a member of it, it is because they sense in some occult way her unworthiness. Any woman can fool a man, but virtually no woman can fool other women.

Nor is this intuitive antagonism that women in general have for the man-woman without justification. For in social life she is the husband-taker who deliberately takes a rich middle-aged man away from the wife who has helped build up his fortune, and in business offices she is a sales-bearer and a mischief maker who tries to ingratiate herself with her employer by flattering and fawning upon him, and by pulling down the other women in the office or shop.

The man-woman never has any pity on other women, never any sympathy for them. She never holds out a helping hand to one in trouble. Instead, she has a mockery of the old, and holds up for ridicule those whose lack of key forces them to dress shabbily.

The man-woman is fond of saying that a woman's best friend is a man, and that if a woman wants favors she must go to a man. But this is not true. Men are only fair-weather friends to a woman. They stick around only as long as the sun of her youth and beauty and gay spirits ast, but when the rainy days of sickness and adversity come they fade away.

Of course, they make their getaway decently, but they make it. If she is a man, they will order the florist to send her a bunch of roses every week until they forget it, or they get so busy sending roses to some blooming healthy girl they cease to remember they ever knew her. Or, if she is in need and they open to be well off, they will send her a cheque under the pressure of other hands-pus-it-out-of-their-minds, but that's about all. You never hear of a man going day after day, week after week, for years, to sit at the bedside of a sick woman friend and try to brighten her up and comfort her. Yet untold numbers of women lay that sacrificial offering on the altar of friendship for other women.

Any woman who went continually to a man's office to weep on his desk and tell him her endless tale of woe would soon find her way barred by an efficient secretary, and he told that the gentleman friend was in conference and could not be disturbed. Yet thousands upon thousands of women offer their breasts for their women friends to weep upon, and listen patiently to the stories of their griefs they have heard a hundred times just because they know that it comforts the afflicted, as nothing else does, just to talk about their sorrows to some one who understands and sympathizes with them.

A man is a mighty good friend to a woman as long as she can amuse him, and as a gay companion who will step out with him in the bright lights, but when she needs some one to sit with her in the dark, some one who will bear with her in her extremity of suffering, then she must have a woman friend, else she is left solitary and alone.

Also, the man-woman is wrong in thinking that she must depend on a man for help. The old idea that women are always at each other's throats, tearing each other down, is false. On the contrary, it is women who boost each other up the ladder. It is women writers who blow the trumpets that make the fame of other women writers and actresses. It is women who write up the successful business women. It is women who get up the money to send talented girls off to college, or to have their voices cultivated. It is women in stores and offices who are always on the lookout for some opening of a job for other women.

For nearly forty years I have worked among women, and the one thing that has impressed me more than anything else has been the way they have helped other women to succeed. I have seen thousands of busy tired women spare the time and trouble to teach young girls their jobs. I have seen them take on a sick woman's work to hold her place for her, and I have been amazed at the altruism with which they rejoiced when good fortune came to another woman, and she was advanced above their heads.

So I say again that I am sorry for the girl who doesn't like women and who has no woman friends. She has missed one of the best things that life can give her.

Our Muscles

Do you use your muscles? By asking the question, I am not trying to flatter you. The answer is of course "You may not be an athlete, but everyone has muscles and everyone uses them. You don't even get out of bed in the morning, you don't even raise your arms, if you do not use your muscles.

Because it does not have red corpuscles (having left them in the arteries and veins) lymph does not have a red color. If we are to be healthy, the lymph must keep moving. Red blood has the heart to pump it around the body; but lymph must depend largely on the movement of muscles in order to get around. One of the best results of exercise is to help the lymph in its journey to the cells.

The great ambition of some boys is to build big muscles which will "show." Big muscles may do no harm; but a better ambition is to give exercise to all muscles of the body, whether they show or not. Sometimes a man whose muscles stand out like Indian mounds is less healthy than a man who has no such muscles to show; but everyone needs exercise.

Rowing a boat, swimming, baseball and golfing are fine forms of exercise. Such common games of boys and girls as tag and prisoners—base supply both enjoyment and beautiful exercise.

MARION DAVIES
IN COMEDY AT
THE DOMINION"It's a Wise Child" Hilarious
Comedy and Shows Sparkling Star at Her Best

"It's a Wise Child." Marion Davies' hilarious new picture, opened to-day at the Dominion Theatre for a three-day run.

The wagging of gossiping tongues provides the motivation for the picture of the Laurence E. Johnson stage hit, which caused such a furore along Broadway last season. This is by far Miss Davies' most delightful characterization. Her winning halcyon completely erases any tendency in the dialogue toward the risqué. She is beautiful to behold as the busy Joyce Stanton and her characterization is the most polished, her recent roles. That is saying a lot, following on the heels of "The Bachelor Father." In both comic and serious moments, Miss Davies is strikingly convincing. There is no artist on the screen to-day who can turn a tear away with a laugh quite as deftly as this vivacious star.

The opening scenes are exciting and set a swift pace for the story to follow. It not only follows this pace, but gains momentum until the final hysterical fade out. Director Robert Leonard knows his farce to a perfect timing and when he gets his story clicking, he does not stop at anything to keep it moving.

COLUMBIA THEATRE

John Gilbert Stars
At the Playhouse In
"Gentleman's Fate"Story Is By Ursula Parrott and Also Starring Are Louis Wol-heim and Marie Prevost

John Gilbert attains a new eminence in his new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "Gentleman's Fate," which opens to-morrow at the Playhouse Theatre, returning to that romantic and dramatic type of role that brings to mind many of his former successes.

In point of characterization and story, however, the new Gilbert picture is as fresh as the motivation. It is he is a young man, reared to luxury, who finds himself a member of a rum-running, gang-warring family, instead of the society scion he thought himself.

The story is by Ursula Parrott, author of "The Divorcee," and is packed full of thrills and surprises. It was especially directed by Mervyn Roy with two leading ladies, Lella Hyams and Anita Page. One is the girl he loved. The other is the one he married.

Despite the gangland locale, the plot tells a sort of psychological human interest story, but teems with dramatic episodes that border on the melodramatic at times, but always right back on the direct track the director has taken to bring it to the swift climax it reaches in a surprising end.

The supporting cast includes Louis Wolheim, as the gangster-brother; and Marie Prevost, John Miljan and George Cooper.

Lewis Stone Has Lead
In Booth Tarkington
Feature at Coliseum"Father's Son" Stars One of the Best Liked and Most Capable Screen Actors

"Father's Son," the Booth Tarkington story which is now showing at the Coliseum Theatre, marks the return to First National of Lewis Stone, who was for several years under contract to the studio, but is now under contract to another producing company.

For years recognized as one of the best actors in motion pictures, and the peer of many American artists of the stage, Mr. Stone again commands the admiration of motion picture fans in his remarkable work under the direction of William Beaudine.

Despite the dozens of new leading men who have come to the front during the last few years, it has always been contended by Mr. Stone's followers that no one has been able to excel his portrayal of difficult dramatic roles.

"In 'Father's Son,'" says Mr. Stone, "I believe I have given one of my best performances. The role appeals to me in many ways and I take a great deal of interest in the interpretation of the character of the father who misunderstood."

The sparkling English farce, "Lord Richard in the Pantry," will open a six-day run at the Coliseum on Saturday. It is the latest and most witty production to come from English studios, and is also the first picture to be shown in this country to come from the Twickenham studio, a suburb of London, which is seriously threatening Ealing as the "Hollywood" of England.

It contains a brilliant comedy cast and introduces the dapper English comedian, Richard Cooper, who jumped into stardom with one bound with his splendid work in this picture as Lord Richard Sandwick, the impetuous young noble who becomes involved in bogue "get-rich-quick" schemes due to his ignorance of financial matters. Another first rate artist in the cast is Frederick Volpe, who scored a success as the admiral in the "Middle Watch."

Another great featured player well known in all English speaking countries is Leo Sheffield, who plays the part of Lord Richard's imperturbable butler. Leo Sheffield has been famous for many years for his wonderful portrayal of "Poo Bah" in the "Mikado," when the Gilbert & Sullivan Opera Company toured Canada and the United States three years ago. The feminine lead is played by Dorothy Secombe, a pretty and clever star of the London musical comedy stage, who is rapidly rising to the first flights in British pictures.

CAPITOL THEATRE
When J. C. Nugent paternally takes his nephew aside to advise him about women in "The Virtuous Husband," showing at the Capitol for the last time to-day, there is more than an ordinary touch of realism in the scene.

The nephew, played by Elliott Nugent is the real-life son of J. C. and the same scene might well have been enacted in the Nugent front parlor, some time or other.

Betty Compton, Jean Arthur, Allison Skipworth and Tully Marshall, appear in the sparkling farce with the two Nugents. Vin Moore directed.

MOUNT DOUGLAS
PARK RULING
NOW AWAITEDCity Will Agree to Completion of Road if Government
Says Nothing

Unless the Provincial Government notifies the City Council of its attitude in regard to Mount Douglas Park within one month, the council will agree to the Victoria-Saanich Parks and Beaches Committee going ahead with the construction of the new road at the park, stopped when an investigating commission on the park was ordered this year.

The council yesterday afternoon supported the recommendation of the committee to adopt this attitude. Alderman John Worthington, who moved for possible fire menace and recreation, said the park at present was in a deplorable condition. The committee wanted action from the government, he said.

"This seems all right," said Mayor Anson. "The government is apparently satisfied now. If not, it is taking a long time to tell us anything about it."

F. A. Graham, who was one of the movers in securing the investigation of the park, wrote the council complaining of the untidiness of the park and for possible fire menace and recreation paper left there by picnic parties.

The council refused to consider his complaint. "When he had a complaint before he went over our heads. Let him do it again," said Alderman Robert Smith. "He was the principal one who succeeded in undermining our jurisdiction of the park in the first place and now he complains," said Alderman W. T. Straith.

The complaining letter was received and filed.

NO STOP FOR
WALKIES HERECity Council Has No Interest in Move to Halt Contests

Guided by experience in Winnipeg and Vancouver and by the fact that contests here are almost at an end, the Victoria City Council will take no action against walkathons. Officially the contests can go ahead till they finish, as far as the council is concerned.

The council yesterday afternoon rejected and filed a recommendation from the Police Commission for the passage of a by-law to prohibit the contests, or others of a similar nature. "There are two contests now going and one is almost finished, and the other won't last a week. Anybody considering starting another one would be foolish. So I do not think we need bother about them," said Alderman James Adam in moving this course.

Alderman W. T. Straith pointed out that prosecutions had been found ineffectual in Winnipeg and Vancouver to stop the contests since the contestants merely walked to court and back again, keeping on their feet all the time. By continued appeals it would be possible for them to continue indefinitely this way.

ENLARGE AREA
SECURING RATECouncil Passes Measure to Correct Arrangements For
C.P.R. Laundry

A by-law to include the new C.P.R. laundry in the area which receives water under a flat rate from the city, was introduced and given first passage by the City Council yesterday afternoon. It will need the assent of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-council before becoming effective.

The measure is an amendment to the Amusement Centre By-law of 1923 in which the C.P.R. was granted a flat rate for the water it used. The Empress Hotel property for twenty years in exchange for construction of the Crystal Garden. Since that time the laundry building has been moved across Douglas Street, outside the hotel area, and the new measure would extend the area to include that on which the new laundry stands.

AGRICULTURAL GRANTS PASSED

Ottawa, July 29.—A grant of $5,000 for the National Dairy Council was approved by the Commons yesterday evening after repeated efforts against it by Liberal members. When estimates of the Agriculture Department were before the House an amendment, moved some weeks ago, to cut out the grant, was rejected without a recorded division.

The item of $295,000 for dairying carried. Items of $453,708.08 for cold storage warehouses, $502,200 for fruit, including a grant of $6,000 for the Canadian Horticultural Council, $579,000 for seed, feed and fertilizer control, including grants to seed fairs, etc., also grant of $21,000 to the Canadian Seed Growers' Association, and $20,000 for expenses in the dehydration of fruits and vegetables, were adopted.

ICE ARENA AT NEW BUILDING
IS SUGGESTEDB.C. Agricultural Association
Investigating, Council Is Informed

A suggestion that the city interest itself in the creation of an ice arena at the new Willows horse show building for the winter months, was advanced by Alderman James Adam at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the City Council.

His proposal was made in consideration of a letter from the building inspector referring to the fact that the new exhibition buildings were completed and had been handed over to the city. He pointed out how popular ice-skating was here prior to the arena being burned down and thought something might be done.

Alderman H. O. Litchfield said the British Columbia Agricultural Association had been investigating the possibilities, but he had no report to make at present. It would, of course, be necessary to lay movable pipes which could be taken out in the summertime and the scheme would in no way detract from the value of the structure for the purpose which it was intended.

DELAY IN NEW
SOLICITING BANCouncil Fails to Pass Regulation Replacing One Thrown Out By Court

Victoria, for the time being, has no by-law to govern the soliciting of people to ride in hired vehicles. Although Magistrate George Jay some time ruled against the existing clause in the Streets, Traffic and Regulations By-law governing soliciting, the City Council yesterday afternoon again delayed passage of a new clause.

The new measure to regulate soliciting was passed as discriminatory to some taxi and sight-seeing interests by Aldermen Alex Peden and W. T. Straith when before the council in committee stage, and although Mayor Anson pressed for some regulation of the matter in view of the fact that tourists were especially affected by it, the council laid it over until its next meeting.

HOW BERLIN SEES HOOVER PLAN

This chart, prepared by The Berlin Illustriert Zeitung, shows graphically the new German war reparations payments for the current year that has been stopped by President Hoover's "debt holiday" plan.

The dotted channels show the amount of payments made by Germany to foreign countries, from a total of $405,175,000.

The lined channels show the amount paid, by foreign countries to the United States and other nations in settlement of their debts.

The smaller circle shows how much there remains in each country from German reparations payments.

The larger circle on each circle shows the population of each country. By comparing the inside and outside circles one gets a comparison of how much Germany enriches foreign countries per capita.

German gold marks have been converted at the current exchange rate of 23.75 cents. The figures in dollars, given in round numbers, are therefore approximate.
